Calendar Entry Change: Business Technology Management Certificate
Beedie School of Business Undergraduate Program

Rationale for change:

BUS 440 Simulation in Management Decision-making is a more appropriate course option for the BTM Certificate than BUS 338 foundations of innovation as BUS 440 provides students an opportunity to use and assess simulation models for decision-making grounded in business processes. It specifically complements existing MIS courses such as BUS 362, BUS 464 and BUS 462. Many of the facets of the existing BUS 338 course are covered either in existing MIS offerings or the lower division business courses.

The Selected topics (specified by MIS area) are being added as options for the certificate because they will target crucial gaps in current MIS offerings which need to be met in view of the fast pace of the technology-intensive industry sectors.

Effective term and year:

Fall 2020

The following program(s) will be affected by these changes:

Calendar Change: “to” and “from” sections are not required. All deletions should be crossed out as follows: ~~sample-~~ All additions should be marked by a bold.

<h2>Dance Extended Minor</h2> This program is intended primarily for students who wish to obtain a bachelor of arts degree with a view to teaching dance in the public schools. It may be used in combination with another extended minor. The program is balanced with dance technique, composition and theory, and some work in a relevant art discipline other than dance. Continuation in the dance extended minor is contingent upon successful completion of CA 122, 123, 124 and 129 and approval of the dance area. Interviews are held at the end of the first year and approval is based on the student's potential, progress, academic record and program suitability. Students are encouraged to plan their program in consultation with the school's advisor. Students without sufficient dance training to audition for program entry may enrol in CA 120. <h3>Admission Requirements</h3> Program and course admission is contingent upon University admission. Contact Student Services for admission procedures, requirements and deadlines. Entry to all programs in the School for the Contemporary Arts and to many courses is by audition, interview or application. Contact the school's office for information on procedures and deadlines or visit our website. Although the University operates on a trimester system, most CA courses are planned in a two term (fall and spring) sequence. Consequently, students enter in the fall term (September) and are advised to contact the school in the preceding January for program entry and requirements information. Entry to the Dance Extended Minor program is by audition/interview, usually in early spring or late summer. Contact the school to make an appointment.

Students are encouraged to plan their program in consultation with the school's advisor. Students without sufficient dance training to audition for program entry may enrol in CA 120.

Entry to CA 122 Contemporary Dance I is by audition/interview usually in early spring. Contact the school to make an appointment.

Continuation in the dance extended minor is contingent upon successful completion of CA 122, 123, 124 and 129 and approval of the dance area. Interviews are held at the end of the first year and approval is based on the student's potential, progress, academic record and program suitability.

A minimum 2.4 SCA GPA and 2.0 CGPA is required to remain in good standing in the program.

Transfer Credit and Advanced Standing

Unassigned or general elective (type 2 and 3, respectively) transfer credit awarded for courses completed at other recognized post-secondary institutions will not automatically entitle students to advanced standing in the school's programs. Advanced standing is generally given on an individual basis as a result of an audition or interview.

About the School's Course Offerings

Students are encouraged to take advantage of interdisciplinary offerings within the school. As many programs depend on a continuing sequence of courses completed in order, students should plan carefully to gain the maximum benefit and efficiency from their study.

Note that not all courses are offered every term and several are offered on a rotational basis, i.e. every third or fourth term. An advisor is available to help plan study programs.

Students are reminded that the school is an interdisciplinary fine and performing arts department, and are strongly advised to acquaint themselves with the many disciplinary courses that are available.

Special Topics Courses

The subject matter (and prerequisites) of special or selected topics courses vary by term.

Rationale for change: To add BISC 428 Cell Anatomy to the list upper division electives in the Cells, Molecules and Physiology concentration for both the Major and Honour in Biological Sciences.
Effective term and year: Fall 2020
The following program(s) will be affected by these changes: Biological Sciences major Biological Sciences honours

Calendar Change: “to” and “from” sections are not required. All deletions should be crossed out as follows: ~~sample~~. All additions should be marked by a bold.

Cells, Molecules, and Physiology (CMP) Concentration This concentration is for students who wish to specialize in Cell Biology, Molecular Biology, and Physiology. The program provides flexibility for students to pursue their interests across these disciplines. ... and at least four additional stream electives from BISC 302W - Genetic Analysis (3) BISC 303 - Microbiology (4) BISC 313 - Environmental Toxicology: A Mechanistic Perspective (3) BISC 357 - Genetic Engineering (4) BISC 403 - Current Topics in Cell Biology (3) BISC 405 - Neurobiology (3) BISC 421 - Models in Biology: From Molecules to Migration (3) BISC 423 - Developmental Neurobiology (3) BISC 424 - Applied Genomics (3) BISC 425 - Sensory Biology (3) BISC 428 - Cell Anatomy (3) BISC 439 - Industrial Microbiology (4)
