University Secretariat MEMORANDUM

To: SenateFrom: Alison Watt, Director, University SecretariatSubject: Proposed Revisions to the Rules of Senate and Election RulesDate: 5 September, 2006

In June, 2006, I prepared a revision to the Rules of Senate in consultation with the Registrar, Mr. Ron Heath, and the Senate Assistant and Electoral Officer, Ms. Bobbie Grant. The Dean of Graduate Studies office was consulted on changes affecting graduate students.

The purpose of this revision was to bring the wording of the Senate and Elections Rules up to date with the benefit of Mr. Heath's vast experience with these responsibilities over the past 22 years prior to his retirement.

In the Rules of Senate, many of the revisions are editorial in nature, and aimed at bringing these rules up to date. I would like to point out the following particular revisions that may be deemed of a more significant nature:

A. Rules of Senate

V.B. 1 A change to the number of individuals (from 5 to 10) required to call a Special meeting is proposed. When the number 5 was included in the Senate Rules, the number of Senators was around 32. Currently, there are 60 members of Senate.
V.C.4. Changing the requirement for SCAR to report to Senate on items that have been submitted, and replacing this with an annual report requirement.

Page 5

V.E Quorum. A change in the quorum was suggested by SCAR in line with the change in numbers of members required to call a special meeting.

Page 6

V.F.2. The current rules provide no guidance on the length of time that tapes of Senate meetings should be kept. The Rules indicate that the minutes of Senate are the official record, and the status of the tapes is therefore unclear.

Page 7

V.I.4. It is recommended that the minutes of Senate no longer need to contain the names of all candidates in senate committee elections. The Senate paper on elections included in the Senate package will continue to have all the names of candidates recorded.

C. Election Rules

The Alumni Association no longer elects individuals to Senate or committees so that section has been removed.

Page 16-18

F. The Faculty Members section has been re-organized, clarified and updated to remove unused terminology and to try to simplify a very complex set of rules covering various types of appointment. No rule changes are contained in this revision.

Page 20

K.5. This provision has been relocated to K so it applies to all elections. In its previous location (I), the provision of dealing with tied votes applied only to elections conducted at Senate (i.e. only Senate committee elections). Extending this to all elections is a pragmatic method of dealing with all tied votes.
L. 3 Under the proposed revision, a by-election would be triggered if a person is away more than a semester. The current wording requires this when the person is away a semester or more. A one-semester vacancy leaves little time for an election or a suitable length of time as a Senator. [Also in the Rules of Senate IV.B.]
