Change in Calendar Language

Economics 101 Students with credit for Economics 200 and/or Economics 205 may not take this course for further credit.

Rationale: For those students who have completed Econ. 200 and Econ. 205, Economics 390 is available and should be taken instead of Econ. 101.

Economics 102 Students with credit for Economics 200 and/or Economics 205 may not take this course for further credit.

Rationale: For those students who have completed Econ. 200 and Econ. 205, Economics 395 is available and should be taken instead of Econ. 102.

Commerce 103 Students with nine credit hours of 300/400 division Commerce courses may not take this course for further credit.

Rationale: After a student proceeds into his third year at Simon Fraser University, majoring in Commerce, it appears inappropriate to have him take Comm.103. Alternatives available are Comm. 403, Comm. 477, and Comm. 478.
