MEMORANDUM

To SENATE

From Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies

Subject CRIM 101-3 as a Prerequisite for Upper Division Criminology Courses

Date 20th July, 1976

Action taken by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies at its meeting of July 13th, 1976 gives rise to the following Motion:

MOTION:

That Senate approve the specification of CRIM 101-3 as a prerequisite for the upper division criminology courses identified in paper S.76-93

NOTE: During the first year of the criminology curriculum it has not been appropriate to require a lower division course as a prerequisite for upper division courses. Nevertheless, it is desirable to require students who want to take advanced criminology courses or seminars to have "the basic and fundamental notions which are dealt with in the introductory level course". The Department had stated that it would always be possible to admit exceptional students with the special permission of the Department.

The earliest feasible implementation date for this new requirement is 1 January, 1977.

MEMORANDUM

To..... Dr. J. Weinkam, Chairman I.D.S. Undergraduate Curriculum Committee	From..... Ezzat A. Fattah, Chairman Department of Criminology
Subject..... CRIM 101 and Upper Level Criminology Courses	Date..... 8 June 1976

The Department of Criminology is seeking approval to amend the calendar entry for a number of its upper levels courses, to reflect the addition of our introductory Criminology course CRIM 101-3 as a prerequisite for these courses.

During the first year of operation, it was impractical to put the introductory Criminology course CRIM 101-3 as a prerequisite for all upper level courses. Now that the course has been offered twice, and will be offered regularly in the future, and in line with the usual practice of most Departments on campus, the Criminology Department finds it necessary to require the students who want to take advanced upper level Criminology courses or seminars to have acquired the basic and fundamental notions which are dealt with in the introductory course. However, it will always be possible to admit exceptional students with the special permission of the Department.

The courses which would be affected by the requested change are as follows:

- CRIM 311-3 Criminality of Particular Groups
- CRIM 312-3 Criminological Perspectives on Social Problems
- CRIM 320-3 Introduction to Criminological Research
- CRIM 330-3 Criminal Procedure and Evidence
- CRIM 335-3 Human Rights and Civil Liberties
- CRIM 340-3 Techniques of Correctional Practice
- CRIM 341-3 Techniques of Criminological Treatment and Social Reintegration I
- CRIM 342-3 Dynamics of Interpersonal Relationships
- CRIM 350-3 Techniques of Crime Prevention I
- CRIM 360-5 Field Practice I
- CRIM 361-1 Field Practice Feedback I
- CRIM 370-3 Directed Readings
- CRIM 410-3 Decision Making in Criminal Justice
- CRIM 414-3 Criminal Typologies
- CRIM 416-3)
- CRIM 417-3) Current Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice
- CRIM 418-3)
- CRIM 420-3 Techniques of Evaluation and Prediction in Criminology
- CRIM 430-3 Judicial Administration and Planning
- CRIM 440-3 Correctional Administration and Planning

Dr. J. Weinkam

8 June 1976

CRIM 450-3 Techniques of Crime Prevention II
CRIM 455-3 Law Enforcement Administration and Planning
CRIM 469-3 Professional Ethics
CRIM 470-5 Directed Studies

The Department of Criminology would appreciate approval of the above change to the calendar entry for those upper level courses and seminars listed. The change would be effective on 1 January 1977.
