MEMORANDUM

To Faculty of Education

From Undergraduate Programs Committee

Subject Special Topics - Policy on Number of Offerings

Date October 11, 1974

Motion:

that the Faculty of Education establish Policy with respect to the number of times Special Topics courses should be offered, specifically that a Special Topic will normally be offered no more than twice by the Faculty of Education. Policy to take effect in 1975 Fall Semester.

RATIONALE:

Special Topics in the Faculty of Education offerings are viewed as "Special" rather than as regular offerings. If a Special Topic has been given once and is seen to have potential as a regular offering, a "New Course Proposal" is made to the Undergraduate Programs Committee of the Faculty. The subject is not offered more than twice as a Special Topic.
