Subject

CHANGE IN COURSE TITLE -

G.S. 427-5

Change of Calendar description, G.S. 427-5.

Members of the Faculty of Interdisciplinary Studies Undergraduate Curriculum Committee have approved the change in title as set forth in the attached paper , and I am forwarding this material to you for inclusion on the agenda of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies.

Attachment.

Sept. 29/75

I.S.C. 75-13.

The original title of GS 427 was BSP 427 "The Behavioural Sciences and The Study of the Future". When the course was transferred into the General Studies Program a title change was made without any detailed discussion with me, primarily because I was away on a sabbatical at the time. The current title in the catalogue is "Alternative Future." I think it would be a clearer indication of the nature of the course to change its title to: "The Study of the Future".

Sincerely,

W. Basil McDermott
