

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

---

Fall Semester 2007 - EDUC 372-4 D100 (Education)

SPECIAL TOPICS: An Analysis of International Service Learning From an Intercultural and Global Education Perspective (India Field School)

Instructor: Mati Bernabei
Phone: 778-999-4578
e-mail: mbernabe@sfu.ca

---

PREREQUISITES: 30 University credits including one Education course

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A diverse range of readings, presentations and seminar discussions will provide a basis for investigating meanings in relation to Service Learning experiences in Chandigarh and Dharamsala, India. Concepts of Intercultural Communication, Global Education will be explored and utilized in the analysis of Service Learning.

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Participation in "Service Learning Projects" in Chandigarh and Dharamsala.
2. Cooperatively plan, implement and evaluate the service learning project.
3. Write a "Reflective Journal" to be submitted to the instructor on a weekly basis
4. Create a "Service Learning Portfolio"
5. Near the end of the program, participate in an "Individual Interview" with the instructor to review and reflect on your experiences in relation to Service Learning and the development of concepts related to Intercultural Communication and Global Education

EVALUATION

You are required to complete all of the assignments listed above. The expectations for each assignment will be outlined for you during the program. This is an ungraded course in which the assignments evaluated on a pass or fail basis. All assignments must be satisfactorily completed in order to pass.

REQUIRED READINGS

Readings will be provided by the instructor.