DESCRIPTION

Objectives:

Education 426 is a course that explores the challenges faced by children with low incidence disabilities (e.g., autism, severe developmental disabilities) in a school environment. The focus of the course will be on intervention approaches to assist children with special needs in the classroom. Each student will be required to conduct a case study which involves spending a minimum of 15 hours assisting a child or adult with disabilities in a school and/or home environment. All Education 426 students will be required to obtain a criminal record check prior to conducting their case study.

Course assignments:

Case study	45 marks
Case study presentation	5 marks
Mid-term	25 marks
Final	25 marks
