

COURSE NUMBER: EDUC 441-04

COURSE NAME: CULTURAL DIFFERENCES AND EDUCATION

SEMESTER: SUMMER SESSION

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION Social and psychological factors relating to the education of students from minority subcultures

COURSE INFORMATION

Instructor	Dates	Day(s)	Time(s)
Prof. June Wyatt	July 2-Aug 17 OFF-CAMPUS	Tu-Wed-Thur	9 - 12:00

Range of Topics:

This is a fieldwork course which will take place on site at an Indian run school in B.C. Throughout the six weeks, students will work with band members on the production of curriculum resource materials which will be based on a series of activities such as fishing, basket making, storytelling and preparation of Indian foods. This will involve photographing, tape recording and writing about these activities and then editing, organizing and polishing what has been produced so that it can be used in the band operated school.

Special Instructions:

Students registering for this course require permission of the instructor. It is recommended that since they will be off campus for 6 weeks that 404 students concurrently register for 2-4 units of directed study in inter-cultural education under my direction.

Permission to register can be obtained from me (Building 1 Rm. 109)

Out of town students may phone (291-3614) or write.

Note: students are advised to contact me prior to April 5. I will be out of town from the 5th to the 14th. The final day for late submission of pre-registration for summer session is April 26. The recommended day is April 1.

Requirements:

Each student will work on a project and produce resource materials for use in the school. The project will be accompanied by instructions for classroom use.