Preparation and application of audio-visual materials in Education. Aimed at practising teachers, student teachers, public and industrial educators, the course will emphasize three basic goals: 1) the operation of equipment commonly found in B.C. schools; 2) the preparation of audio-visual material via techniques which are economical and/or time saving; 3) the integration of contemporary media tools and concepts into the present school curriculum. As the course will be given in the Learning Resources Lab., a "hands-on" individualized learning approach will be emphasized.
