SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

Summer SEMESTER 2009 COURSE OUTLINE

EDUC 467-4 (EDUCATION)
CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION IN TEACHING ENGLISH AS AN ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE
C100

This course addresses social, cultural, and educational issues related to learners for whom English is a second language. The goal is to provide a broad introduction to the field of ESL teaching and to the study of understanding linguistic and cultural diversity. These issues include (but are not limited to) the following relationships between languages, cultures, and practices; language use in and out of school; theories of second-language acquisition; design and implementation of language programs in schools; pedagogy and methods for teaching languages and literacies; the social context of schooling and learning; and social and psychological factors that affect language learning and academic performance among non-native speakers of English.

PREREQUISITES: 3 hours of credit and a linguistics course.
