Designs For Learning: Social Sciences
Interession 1977

Dates: May - June                      Time: Tuesday and Friday 8:30 - 12:30.

Instructor: Carol Langford

Course Description

This course is designed primarily for student teachers who are interested in learning about social studies instruction in the elementary school. Students will study the B.C. Elementary program and examine a variety of ways in which the program can be implemented in the classroom. Particular emphasis will be placed on the development of skill in designing learning experiences which promote a high degree of student involvement in the learning process.

Requirements

Students will be required to complete at least three short assignments. These may be self-designed or may be selected from suggestions provided by the instructor. In addition each student will be required to prepare a unit of study appropriate for implementation in an elementary classroom.
