

EDUC. 474-4 DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: SOCIAL SCIENCES

(SECONDARY)

INTERSESSION 1981

INSTRUCTOR: John E. Collins

Monday and Wednesday, 12:30 - 4:20

LOCATION: Campus

COURSE OUTLINE

1. What is social studies? - definitions
 - B.C. Curriculum, current and coming
 - (a) goals and objectives
 - (b) scope and sequence
 - (c) skills
2. Planning to teach
 - objectives
 - materials
 - strategies (teaching styles)
3. The skills of social studies, eg. mapping, reading, inquiry
4. Concept development in various social sciences
5. Using media in the classroom
6. Hands-on experiences
7. Resources:
 - in the school
 - in other institutions (e.g. in libraries and archives)
 - non-institutional (e.g. field experiences)
8. Evaluation:
 - curriculum
 - students
 - course

TEXT: WESLEY, E. & WRONSKI, S.; TEACHING SECONDARY SOCIAL STUDIES IN A WORLD SOCIETY; Heath, 1973