

EDUCATION 480-4

DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE
(For Immersion and Programme-Cadre Teachers)

Summer Session, 1985
11:00 - 1:00

Instructor: André Obadia
Location : MPX

This course is offered in French. It is intended for French immersion and programme-cadre teachers at the Elementary and Secondary levels. The main focus of this course is to learn how to adapt basic French (or French as a second language) teaching techniques to immersion and programme-cadre classes.

This course deals with a variety of approaches including the communicative approach.

The students will also learn to use error analysis techniques.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Native-like fluency in French*.
2. Teaching certificate and some teaching experience in French immersion or programme-cadre de français.

*French proficiency will be assessed during the first week of class. The opportunity of attending the course as an auditor will be offered to those whose level of French is not fluent enough.

REQUIRED TEXT

Rivers, Wilga, M., A Practical Guide to the Teaching of French.
New York, Oxford University Press (current edition).