

EDUCATION 490-2

Directed Studies

Instructor - Judy Kaufman

Fall 1986 - Alert Bay, B.C.

Description:

The SFU Native Teacher Education Program begins this Fall with a semester of academic coursework plus Education 490. The latter is intended to provide an introduction to the practicum experience prior to Education 401/402. The purposes of Education 490 are a) to assist participants in developing ways of looking at and describing what goes on in classrooms, and b) to introduce participants to their instructional role by working with individual pupils and small groups. Participants will attend seminars and spend one day a week in a classroom setting.

Learning Outcomes: Participants will

1. demonstrate systematic observation skills,
2. establish respectful and ethical working relationships with pupils and others in the educational community,
3. plan, teach and evaluate short learning experiences which are designed to achieve specific objectives and demonstrate awareness of pupil needs.

Evaluation will be based upon

1. demonstration of learning outcomes
2. attendance and participation
3. child study project including needs assessment, 3-4 lesson plans, implementation, pupil evaluation and modifications based upon that feedback.
