

Education 490 - 2

Directed Studies - Observation in Classrooms

Instructors:

Marylou Fritch - Prince Rupert D2.00
Mary Ann Lawrence - Terrace D3.00
Willie Gordon - Smithers D4.00

Semester: 91-1

(15)
(15)
(15)

Objectives:

1. To provide a variety of structured observation experiences for students.
  2. To explore concepts of, and relationships between, teaching and learning.
  3. To gain skill and understanding in objective and non-judgemental observation and data gathering in classrooms
  4. To plan, teach and evaluate a series of lessons.
-

Evaluation Criteria

Participation: Includes attendance at class, attendance at observations, active participation in seminars, teaching a series of lessons

Assignments: Observation notes and analysis
Evaluation of student learning
Series of lesson plans and analysis of their execution
Readings, as assigned.

Text: Brophey & Good Looking in Classrooms

Van Manen, M. (1986). The Tone of Teaching
Richmond Hill, Ontario; Scholastic-TAB.