RE: FASSGSC Proposals

DATE: 1st May 2015

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Graduate Committee met on 29th January 2015 and passed the attached motion.

• FASS Requirements (GGR 1.9.3) Calendar Entry Change for Examining Committee for a Doctoral Thesis

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Graduate Committee met on 23rd April 2015 and approved the curricular revisions, as submitted by the Department of Gerontology (FASSGSC 15-1), and by the Department of Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies (FASSGSC 15-2):

• New course proposal GERO 850-4 and associated Gerontology calendar language change (course requirements)
  While an internship or prior work experience has always been a requirement for the Gerontology MA program, it is now being formalized as a course so that the internship appears on the transcript. The procedure for MA student internship placement in Gerontology is as follows: an internship meeting is set up for each student to meet with her/his senior supervisor and department chair. At this meeting, the student’s research and professional interests are reviewed, as well as past professional experience in the field of aging. Based on this review, the chair and senior supervisor recommend organizations that would be suitable for that student. Gerontology faculty members have extensive professional networks with the health authorities, seniors’ care and service providers, non-profit organizations, etc. in Metro Vancouver. In addition to recommending appropriate organizations, Gerontology faculty fairly often provide names of contact persons at those suggested organizations for potential internship placements. Quite often the student would also do her/his groundwork beforehand and would bring forward initial leads or connections. Between the faculty recommendations/connections and student initiatives, in general, Gerontology students do not have any difficulty securing an internship position. In past experience, there has been no case where an MA student was unsuccessful in getting an internship placement.
Course deletion GSWS 899-10
There are no students currently enrolled in the MA Extended Essay Option which was deleted from the Calendar in 2013. Consequently there are no students who will be affected by this course deletion.

We would like all of the above changes to become effective Spring 2016.

Would you please place these items on the agenda for the next SGSC meeting.

Re: Deletion of GSWS 899-10
Date: March 16, 2015

The following course deletion was approved by the Department of Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies at its departmental meeting on September 18, 2013. We eliminated the Extended Essay Option in our M.A. program (approved by FASSGSC and Senate in 2013) but had accidentally left the course on the calendar. This deletion request is for housecleaning. Please forward the curriculum item to the next FASSGSC for approval.

 If a course is only available to students in a particular program, that should be stated in the prerequisite.

 This applies to a Special Topics or Directed Readings course.
Rationale for introduction of this course

In previous years, the course number GERO 850 was attached to a Co-op internship administered by the FASS Co-op office rather than the Department of Gerontology. As the last student to enroll in this particular Co-op course was in 2005, the course was deleted last year. It is important to note that the MA Internship has been, and continues to be, a mandatory requirement for a student completing their MA in Gerontology. In the last several years, the Gerontology Department has been documenting students' successful fulfillment of this internship requirement in an internal process, rather than as a formal course. At this time, the Gerontology GPC would like to have the course, GERO 850 – MA Internship, formally re-instated in order for it to be included on student transcripts.

All students must secure 250 - 300 hours of work with a public, private or not for profit organization connected to gerontology except when a student has considerable gerontology-related work experience and receives permission from the department chair for exemption.

The internship is a paid or unpaid position in which the student will learn professional, applied skills in a position of responsibility related to his or her area of research interest. A position of responsibility is one in which the student will be in a supervisory, managerial, or other key role.

The internship experience is expected to provide several benefits to the student, including development of practical skills and techniques applicable to their careers, an opportunity to test the suitability of a particular career path, develop professional network and effective professional interpersonal skills.

Examples of student internships include, but are not limited to: working with a manager with a local health authority; working with an executive director of a residential care facility, seniors' housing or seniors' centre to learn various aspects of the job; or learning the skills of an administrator in a seniors' healthcare/support service providing organization.

The student's faculty supervisor will evaluate the student's performance as satisfactory / unsatisfactory on the basis of interim and final reports submitted by the internship site supervisor.

Prerequisites: MA in Gerontology students in good academic standing who have successfully completed a criminal record check.
Calendar Entry Change for MA in Gerontology

Summary of change:
Move “Internship” to be included in “Course Requirements”.

Rationale for change:
Currently “Internship” appears separately from the Course Requirements. As we are asking that a course number be assigned to the Internship, we would like to have it moved to the Course Requirements section. Students are normally expected to complete 250-300 hours to fulfill the internship requirement but these hours may be reduced depending upon the student. Information about the internship being partially (i.e. reduced hours) or fully waived was added.

Effective term and year:
Spring 2016.

Will this change impact current students? If yes, what is the plan for current students?
No. The internship is a current requirement for students while enrolled in their program so this change will have no impact on current students (i.e. tuition). The only difference is that students completing the internship will be required to enrol in GERO 850.

based projects that will entail original work and will fall under one of the following types.

- a critical synthesis of theoretical and/or research literature on a focused topic related to aging
- an original grant proposal including an extended literature review, methodology, and design sections
- development of a new program intervention and/or an evaluation of framework proposal of a program related to the field of aging

Internship

Students lacking relevant work experience will supplement their program with an internship by working for an agency or organization in a position of responsibility for a maximum of one term.
