My name is Vanessa Kelly. I am currently the Treasurer of the Simon Fraser Student Society and a 4th year Visual Arts Undergraduate Student. Through out my academic career, I have taken an active interest in University governance and student representation.

As alternate for the Senate Committee on University Priorities I would be a knowledgeable and critical student representative. I will work towards understanding the committee structure, understanding University policy and ensuring that it works in the best interest of student at Simon Fraser University.

Any member of senate with questions about my candidacy or interest in SCUP may contact me anytime.
