FROM: Chris Giacomantonio
Student Senator

RE: Tuition Boycott

DATE: September 25, 2003

I wish to bring forward the following motions and rationale concerning the 2% penalty for non-payment of tuition fees before the attention of Senate.

Motion:

THAT Senate recommend to the Board of Governors that the income from the 2% penalty charged on non-payment of tuition and student fees ~~resulting~~ ^{estimated to} resulting from the tuition fee boycott, for the Fall 2003 semester, be put directly into the University's bursaries funds.
