Apaak, Clement

PhD student, Archaeology.

My interests in serving on CRUA, SCIA and ISEC are based on my background as an international student and my desire to see diversity in programs and faculty.

CRUA: As an international graduate student and the current Graduate Issues Officer of the SFSS I believe my input on CRUA will be valuable. I sat on a similar committees at the University of Bergen where I served as the President of the International Students Union.

SCIA and ISEC: My position as the current Commissioner for International Students for the Canadian Federation of Students will serve both SCIA and ISEC well. As a student who has studied in three institutions on three continents, I know the value of co-operation and exchange programs between universities. I will help ensure that SFU's relations and activities both at home and abroad are not at the expense of basic human rights and the principles of democracy.

SENATE VICE CHAIR

I bring to the Senate many years of experience in leadership across three continents. I consider myself a citizen of the world and believe in quality education without borders. I have represented students on many committees, boards, and in many other capacities. I have chaired many meetings and have always been a team player. I will work to ensure that Senate remains a respectable and honest component of our university.

EXPERIENCE

- Graduate Issues Officer, Simon Fraser Student Society, Present
- International Student Commissioner, Canadian Federation of Students, Present
- Teaching Assistant, Department of Archaeology, Simon Fraser University, 2001-2002
- Public Relations Officer, Ghanaian Association of San Diego, U.S.A. 2000-2001
- Chairman, African Students Association, University of Bergen, Norway 1999
- Leader, Tenants Union, Fantoft Students Hostel, Bergen, Norway 1999
- President, International Students Union, University of Bergen, Norway 1997-1998

Bourke, Brynn

I am a third year Political Science/ Women's Studies major at Simon Fraser. My interest in Political Science and social justice have led me to advocate for students and community rights in many different areas. At Kwantlen University College, I served as Executive Director of Academics and as Chair of the Academic Issues Committee. Through my advocacy work, I created a food bank at Kwantlen, resulting in stable assistance for students and designed 6 new representative positions on the Kwantlen Student Association Board to represent students with disabilities, students of colour, women, and other constituency groups. I currently work for the Simon Fraser Student Society as a Member at Large.

It is with great enthusiasm that I submit my nomination for the Senate Committee on University Priorities, the Senate Committee on Disciplinary Appeals, and the Electoral Standing Committee. I come to the table with support from the Student Senator Caucus. I also have experience in strategic planning, shown through my committee experience on the Kwantlen Appeals Review Committee, Scholarships and Bursaries, and I held a student society seat on Kwantlen Education Council as an observer. The Senate Committee on University Priorities would allow me to get directly involved with the workings of Simon Fraser, The Senate Committee on Disciplinary Appeals would allow me to bring my experience with natural law and due process to the table, advocating for fairness in institutional appeals for both the institution and the student. If provided this unique opportunity, I will venture to make the process more welcoming to students and to bring student input

Fawkes, Tanya

My name is Tanya Fawkes and I am currently a full time student at Simon Fraser University. I will be graduating in the Spring 2003 semester. After graduation, I am planning to continue my education in either psychology or social work. Throughout my post-secondary education I have tried to make sure that I get as many experiences as possible. I have volunteered and worked for a number of research projects, joined the rowing club, and volunteered at local hospitals among a number of other rewarding experiences that go along with a university education.

The most rewarding experience that I had the opportunity to have was a National Student Exchange to the University of Minnesota. This was by far the most fun and valuable experience that I have had so far. I learned so much about myself and others that I feel that if someone does not have this experience during their education, they are missing out on a huge learning opportunity. Because I found this such an enjoyable experience, I would like to be involved in some way in maintaining this and other International Student Programs at our school. I think that being a student senate member on the either the committee for the International Student Exchange Programs or the Senate Committee on International Activities is an ideal way for me to contribute back to a program that provided an invaluable experience during my education. This type of position would also allow for me to have at least one more unique experience before I graduate. Thank you very much for your consideration and I look forward to, hopefully, working with you.

Garcia, Carlos

Background

I am a fourth-year student in the Faculty of Arts, pursuing a double major in Sociology and Geography. Since I transferred to SFU (January of 2000), I have been involved in diverse organizations on campus such as the Simon Fraser Public Interest Research Group (SFPIRG), the Simon Fraser Campus-Community Radio (CJSF) and the Sociology and Anthropology Student Union. Currently, I am the President of the Simon Fraser Student Society. I am interested in promoting the principles of public, universally accessible, high quality post-secondary education and meaningful student participation in all aspects of university governance.

Request for an appointment to the Senate Committee on Agenda and Rules

As the President of the Student Society and a Senator, I want to insure that students have input in determining the agenda of Senate. My past experiences in determining agendas and following policy include working as the chair of the Sociology and Anthropology Student Union and the facilitator of the SFPIRG Board of Directors. Currently, I am the chair of the Executive of the SFSS.

Request for an appointment to the Senate Calendar Committee

The calendar is a very important resource for students. In my time here, I have become well versed in the use of the SFU Calendar. I am seeking appointment to CC to provide a student perspective of how to make the calendar more accessible and even more useful for students.

Jackson, Margaret

Professor of Criminology and Director, Institute for Studies in Criminal Justice Policy

I have been a member of Senate for two years. In that time, I have served on the Undergraduate Awards Adjudication Committee (SUAAC), the Senate Committee on Continuing Studies (SCCS), and the Senate Committee on International Affairs (SCIA). I feel the proper implementation of the terms of reference for the Senate Committee on Agenda and Rules (SCAR) are important for the good order and governance of Senate. I would thus appreciate the opportunity to serve on that committee to assist in that process.

MacMillen, Mavis

I am interested in standing for election as a graduate student representative (at-large) on two Senate Committees, the SGAAC, and SCIA.

I am a part-time Masters student in the School of Communication, researching the effects of patenting life-forms on biodiversity and health care in developing countries, and examining the various trade agreements that govern patents on life-forms and genetic material. I have a particular interest, therefore, in development as an international activity, and I believe I have something to contribute.

I have already served a term on the SGAAC, and would certainly be willing to serve again, as I found it a very interesting experience.

Poletz, Taira

I am currently registered as a 4th year Communications student in the Faculty of Applied Sciences at SFU. In my student career I have also taken numerous courses in International Relations and Political Studies as I have a keen interest in global politics. After I graduate I hope to pursue a masters degree in Marketing, with the intention of getting involved in the UN or working with an international organization.

1. Committee on International Activities

I am interested in international activities and policy development, and have spent time overseas and in the USA for personal study of various cultures. I have a background in international relations and political studies and feel this enhances my awareness and understanding of issues involving the world and how it relates to our university. In the future I hope to be involved in making changes and an impact on our world through working in conjunction with the United Nations or another form of international organization.

2. Diverse Qualifications Adjudication Committee

I have a keen interest in serving and helping those who have extenuating circumstances. I have served on various advisory committees which deal with public welfare, such as the Citizen's Advisory Committee (in conjunction with the RCMP) in Saskatchewan. I feel I am qualified not merely in terms of technical skills, but in terms of character as I am a good judge of character and circumstance, and am able to make fair decisions in a timely manner. My personal background and travel experiences flavour my desire to serve on this committee and help others in need.

Tyab, Azam

It is with great enthusiasm that I submit my nomination for the Senate Committee on University Priorities and the Committee on Enrollment Management and Planning. I am honored to have been chosen by my fellow students to fulfill the important responsibility of Senate representative. I am a fourth year Political Science student specializing in International Relations and theory. At the Langara Students Union I was a representative on the Education Council, the body analogous to Senate at Langara College. As the University Relations Officer for the Simon Fraser Student Society, I am strongly committed to widening the scope of the democratic participation of students.

Committees
SCUP

I am familiar with strategic planning processes, setting goals, objectives and developing priorities in a variety of different settings. I played a key organizing role in both the Corporate Influences Working Group and the U-Pass Working Group. As a result of my efforts these working groups developed excellent planning and organizing processes. I look forward to assist with the planning and organization of the University as it faces new challenges.

SCEMP

As a transfer student from Langara College I will be able to provide a unique perspective for dealing with issues surrounding enrollment. In the new political climate, universities and students face the challenge of increasing enrollment without a similar increase in funding. The challenge of dealing with competing demands and treating the various stakeholders of the university in an equitable manner while working with scarce resources is of utmost importance.

Michelle Kemper For SCODA

I feel strongly that serving on Senate is a serious responsibility, which includes undertaking the important work of its various committees. I wish to bring the perspective of "mature and returning students" to my work on Senate.

Currently, I'm a fourth year Political Science major, working towards a minor in Labour Studies and Business Administration.

My past experience and activities include:

- BC Chairperson, Canadian Federation of Students, 94-95;
- Executive member, Camosun College Student Society, 92-93;
- Employee, BC Coalition for Public Education, 1996;
- Member, Langara College Board of Governors, 95-96;
- Member, SFU Diverse Qualification Applicant Committee, 2002;
- Ministerial Assistant to BC Cabinet Ministers of Transportation and Highways, Women's Equality, and Energy/Mines/Northern Development, 96-00; and,
- Government Relations Consultant, 2000-present.

My past advocacy experience allows my to ensure students have meaningful representation in the operations of our University. Specifically, SCODA is an important venue for the principles of natural justice to be upheld. Students rely on this committee to ensure penalties for dishonesty and misconduct are fairly imposed. My past experience will aid in ensuring that students trust the decision-making processes of our institution.

I thank you in advance for your support.

Michelle Kemper

Joel Warren

SCODA

Dear colleague Senators,

I feel I will be an asset to the Senate committee on disciplinary appeals if elected. I was once put through a disciplinary process in another institution which arose from false accusations and trumped up charges. I had to battle for myself on grounds of equity and and legality. The process was long and drawn out but in the end my appeal overturned the original decision.

What I have learned from this experience is a working understanding of natural justice and procedural fairness and a much better understanding of administrative tribunals. I am true to my values of fairness and impartiality but I am also a strong advocate of students and their situations. My senses of justice and analysis will complement one another well in this position.

I have been a Student Senator for the past year, and despite scheduling conflicts I was able to assert myself as THE critical Student Senator asking insightful and tough questions on issues of contention. I was the Student Representative on the Search Committee for the Associate Vice-President Policy, Equity, Legal, and I was the University Relations Officer for the Simon Fraser Student Society.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Joel Warren, Student Senator

Larry Weldon

SCUP:

I have completed one term with SCUP and have attended whenever my teaching schedule allowed. I make an effort to contribute to most discussions of the committee, but have particular experience in the areas of multi-disciplinary programs, distance education, continuing studies, international programs, consulting services, student advising, and the HC campus. These experiences supplement my disciplinary education in statistics, mathematics, and science. I would like to continue to work with this important Senate committee to help steer SFU toward a vigorous future.

SCIA:

My interest in this committee derives from my experience with the Indonesia project, and also from a long-standing interest in foreign travel and multi-culturalism. I have completed one term on this committee and feel I now know the rules well enough to make a useful contribution. I would like a chance to continue for one more term on this committee.

SCEMP:

This committee has a very important job - to decide on the enrollment targets each semester, with the constraints being the funding per enrolled student and the maximum number of students funded. In addition, the allocation of new enrollments to the many categories of admission requires a consideration of both political and statistical issues. I hope to continue on this committee to help make these decisions in a way that is fair to the many competing units.

Muneer Esmail

Dear Members of the Senate:

RE: Request for an appointment to the Senate Committee on Continuing Studies (SCCS).

My name is Muneer Esmail, and I am a graduate student in the Department of Molecular Biology and Biochemistry. When I joined SFU last September, I did so with two goals in mind:

1. To complete my doctoral work so that I can eventually take up a career in teaching and academia.
2. To become an active and contributing member of my university.

Over the past semester, I have had the privilege of serving on the SCCS. My commitment to the pursuit of knowledge has proven a tremendous asset because it has helped me identify with the goals of the Senate Committee on Continuing Studies. The SCCS serves a vital function at the University by overseeing the development of continuing education credit and credit-free programs. At the heart of the SCCS are the criteria it uses to assess the numerous proposals for continuing education programs. These criteria, which are critical for ensuring the highest standard of education, are currently being expanded and redefined in a more rigorous style. I would very much like to see these changes through and hope you will consider re-appointing me to the SCCS.

Danny Chen

Finding something to occupy myself is always interesting, especially something new and challenging. Prior to the April voting, I was intensively involved with the SFUTA (Taiwanese Association) - an on-campus non-profit student organization of 700 plus members. My duties as the President of the club gave me a lot of opportunities to learn things that are not taught in lectures nor at work. After sixteen months of leading the SFUTA, I decided that it was time for me to do more for my friends and fellow students on campus. The positions in the Senate and the Board of Governors were perfect choices; it looks like I have found something new and challenging again!

-SCODA-

Nobody is perfect, and every person makes mistakes. I had been in tough corners before and I can understand how there can easily be many sides to a story. Having had to deal with more than my fair share of troubles when I was younger made me realize how important it was to have someone taking the time to fully understand and see the situation in multiple angles. This is not to say that I see everything sympathetically; there are still going to be obvious offences that will need to be dealt with sternly. However, if this committee permanently has someone onboard who can relate to bad situations, it would not only benefit the committee but also the students.

-SCUTL-

Undergraduate studies are the fundamentals to every university student. It is important that students receive the right information and teaching, because different programs will ultimately help students find their specialties. It is also important for the school to know how students feel about different programs. I can reach out to a lot of students of Asian background because I can convey the school's ideas and thoughts to them in languages that they are familiar with, as well as collect their valuable feedback to the Senate.

-SCUP-

Undergraduate studies are the fundamentals to every university student. It is important that students receive the right information and teaching, because different programs will ultimately help students find their specialties. It is also important for the school to know how students feel about different programs. I can reach out to a lot of students of Asian background because I can convey the school's ideas and thoughts to them in languages that they are familiar with, as well as collect their valuable feedback to the Senate.

Valerie Dunsterville

Lay Senator

I have a genuine interest in the committees on which I have been serving and would like to continue on them. I believe that longer service and experience on these committees provides continuity and the opportunity to understand the issues SFU faces. I also hope that as a result of the experience, I am in a better position to support Senate in its decision making.

Gina Fernandez

My name is Gina Fernandez and I am a fourth year student at Simon Fraser University. I would like to apply to be the regular undergraduate representative of the Senate Committee of Disciplinary Appeals, Diverse Qualifications Adjudication Committee, Senate Committee of Undergraduate Studies, and Senate Committee on University Honours. Currently, I am the alternate undergraduate representative on the Senate Committee of Disciplinary Appeals. Though I find this position rewarding, I would welcome the opportunity to be more involved in the senate committees. In addition to SCODA, I am the current undergraduate representative on the Senate Library Committee. My time on this committee has familiarized me with the procedures of the Senate Committees and has motivated me to become active in other Senate Committees at this university. I would find it interesting to be a part of the committee that recognizes exceptional individuals by awarding University Honours, SCUH. DQAC appeals to me because my background includes extensive training in dance, music and other activities, and I believe this provides me with a solid background for this position. I would like to be a part of SCUS, in particular, because I have a wide range of academic interests and consequently, have taken a variety of undergraduate courses. I feel this gives me the appropriate background for this position. In addition, I transferred to SFU from another institution and therefore, I am quite knowledgeable about policies concerning credit transfer.

My past work experience includes employment with the Vancouver International Airport in the Customer Service Department, and this has allowed me to become proficient in the areas of conflict resolution and decision-making. My participation in the Senate Committees at Simon Fraser University, and current employment with the Airport Medical Clinic has refined my time management skills. Also, my experience in dealing with the public has been diverse, including mentally and physically handicapped students and extended health care residents. I have extensive experience working with teams, as I was a member of the City Youth Council of Richmond, Library Youth Council, and a peer counselling team in Richmond. As well, my leadership qualities were enhanced during my time as assistant coach of an athletics team in Richmond. I believe these aforementioned skills and qualities are essential to a committee member and therefore, I would like to be considered for these committees. I know my open mind, enthusiasm, ability to learn quickly and proven competence in interpersonal relations, make me the right candidate for these positions.

Amit Kumar Goel

I, Amit Kumar Goel, an international graduate student at SFU am in my 5th semester and have been involved in various volunteer activities on campus including two senate committees . Hence, this is my second nomination for the Senate Policy Committee on Scholarships, Awards & Bursaries (SPCSAB) and Senate Graduate Awards Adjudication Committee (SGAAC). I have been consistent in attending and participating in these two committees and wish to continue to do so.

Having studied at various international institutions prior to joining SFU, I have vast experience in student related issues and challenges and academic institutional management. At Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Bangkok, Thailand, I had the privilege of being the General Secretary for the Student Union and representing students to the Student Relations Committee of the Board of Trustees. These experiences have enriched me in many ways and I would like to further these abilities and improve my leadership skills. Therefore, I would like to present myself as a candidate for the senate committees.

Peter Grimmett

Professor of Education and Director of the Institute for Studies in Teacher Education at Simon Fraser University.

Before joining SFU, I was Director of the Centre for the Study of Teacher Education at UBC. My interests focus on how practitioners derive the requisite professional knowledge and skills to do their work competently. I study how teachers are affected by processes like reflection and action research, etc., and by the socio-political-cultural contexts in which they do their work.

I have served as President of the Canadian Association for Teacher Education and currently serve as the Associate Editor of two journals, The Journal of Curriculum and Supervision (published by ASCD in Alexandria, VA) and The Journal of Education for Teaching (published by Carfax in the UK). I also served on the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) Education Committee for three years—one year as chair—and am presently a member of the Canada Research Chairs' Program College of Reviewers. Recently, I was a key-note speaker at international conferences in Kansas City, MO., Lahti, Finland, Tel Aviv, Israel, Ottawa, Montreal, and Chicago, IL. In May 2000, I received an honorary doctorate from the University of Tampere, Finland, in recognition of my outstanding merits as a researcher and educator in the areas of professional development and teacher education. In total, I have published 36 refereed journal articles, written seven books and 34 chapters in books, and also gained close to a million dollars in research funding (mainly from SSHRC) and produced two professional videos. In the last two years I have undertaken major work for the province of British Columbia, studying patterns of teacher supply and demand, developing policy to address a possible shortage of educators.

I have been a member of Senate for two years. During that time, I have served on the Senate Committee for University Priorities (SCUP), dealing with budgetary matters, academic unit reviews, and academic strategic planning, the Senate Committee on University Honours (SCUH), and the Senate Policy Committee on Scholarships and Bursaries (SPCSAB). I also served on the Vice President, Academic search committee in 1999-2000 and have been the chair of the Education Faculty Tenure Committee for six years.

Thus, I bring considerable experience to the work of SCUP. Having served on SCUP for the past two years, I am ready and willing to continue my service in the important area of establishing university priorities.

Kamal Gupta

Professor (Ph.D., EE, McGill, 1987)
School of Engineering Science

Statement: (SPCSAB): Student scholarships are critical to attracting good quality students to SFU. At the same time, these scholarships form an important financial factor from a student's perspective. I am deeply interested in these issues. I am also a candidate for NSERC's (post graduate) engineering scholarship committee. I am hoping that the latter would provide me with some global perspectives that I can then bring to the SFU scene.

Statement (SCEMP): SFU is currently facing significant issues in the face of continual tight budgets for last several years. At the same time, there are opportunities for growth in certain disciplines such as engineering and computer science. I advocate a balanced approach to many of these issues, guided by ideals of scholarly excellence and enhancing SFU's research reputation.

Brief Background

My research interests are in Computational Robotics and a key aim of my research is to develop algorithms that enable robots to have autonomous capabilities to function in their environment. My research is documented in twenty one journal papers, over fifty refereed conference papers, several book articles, and an edited book, published by John Wiley. I am a co-chair of IEEE Robotics and Automation Society's Technical Committee on Motion and Path Planning.

I have served on several departmental and inter-departmental committees including Chair of the Undergraduate Program Committee in Engineering Science. I have also served on a large number of international scientific committees; most recently, I have been on the Program Committee of 2000, 2001, and 2002 IEEE International Conference on Robotics and Automation.

Colin H. Jones

Candidate for SCIA

Background: Long-standing Chemistry faculty member who has served as Chair of Chemistry(79-88) and Dean of Science(88-99);actively promoted international activities in Science in Indonesia, Cuba and Chile; served on SCIA as a Senate representative some years ago and from 1999 to 2001 was a non-voting member of SCIA in my capacity in international relations. I believe that there are many areas where the universities international activities can be significantly strengthened and would welcome the opportunity to work through SCIA in pursuing these improvements.

For example:

..... only 80 to 100 SFU undergraduates out of some 18,000 head count participate in exchanges in each year. We must do a much better job of supporting our undergraduates in study-abroad activities.

..... only 60 to 80 students each year participate in field schools, with most field schools operating well below the 20-25 recommended range. Ways must be found to make it easier for students to participate by, for example, setting the SCIA-approved budgets for these field-schools at a more reasonable level.

.....on-campus services for the 700 or so international students are minimal and SCIA should assist in addressing this shortfall.

.....international development and education projects should be strongly linked to academic departments and faculties and to the universities academic objectives. Such linkages have existed in some but not all projects in the past.

Peter Liljedahl

My name is Peter Liljedahl. I'm a doctoral student in the Faculty of Education focusing on the learning of mathematics. I have served one term as Graduate Alternate on the SAB and would like to continue doing so.

I chose the SAB because I feel strongly about the University's responsibility to listen to the particulars of individual cases and to weigh those particulars in parallel to the established policies. The SAB is one of the vehicles of this process.

Barbara Naef

I am a lay senator who recently retired from the position of Area Superintendent of Schools in Surrey. Since retirement I have continued to work in the education field with my major areas of emphasis being investigations into activities including harassment, abuse and fraud, audits, multiculturalism and curriculum development. I have had extensive experience in all facets of management and administration in a large urban school district. During my years on the Senate I have served on the Senate Committee on the Budget and the Senate Committee on Academic Programs. I have been a member of the Diverse Qualifications Committee since its inception.

Jabir Nathu

Faculty: Business

Year: 4

I'd like to thank you for taking the time to read my bio and consider my name for election to SCUS and SCODA. I am currently a fourth year business major with plans to complete concentrations in management information systems and finance and still possibly complete an honours degree.

However, I do feel that academic life involves more than reading a few books, taking a few exams, and making a few friends. As corny as it sounds, I feel that the one who gets the most out of school is the one who puts the most into it. This is my primary reason for wanting to participate on these committees. In the following two paragraphs i will elaborate on the two committees i have the most interest in and wish to be elected to.

SCUS is a committee i would like to join because after three full years of post-secondary education, i feel that i have a good set of experiences and a solid base of knowledge upon which I can offer suggestions and constructive comments regarding our curriculum.

SCODA is a committee i would like to participate in because i believe i can offer fair judgments as it pertains to other students. I have a proven background of giving sound advice and analyzing situations in a critical but just matter.

I believe that my business background will provide a sense of diversity to these committees as business students tend not to take as active a role in these scholastic committees as students from other faculties. Hopefully, that asset will set me aside from the other candidates.

Finally, as almost a footnote, I will be travelling across Europe until the beginning of the school year. Therefor, i will not be able to attend any meetings in the summertime. However, i am very willing to work through correspondence. I will be constantly checking my email and hope to hear from someone telling me that i have been elected.

Graham Percival

Graham Percival is a fifth-year undergraduate student pursuing an honours in philosophy, an extended minor in music, and a minor in mathematics. He has served on SAB for two years as alternate student member, and on SCUS and the Calendar Committee for two years as student member.

The breadth of Graham's courses has given him experience in many different approaches to undergraduate studies, prompting his interest in SCUS and the Calendar Committee. He has enjoyed being active on those committees for the past two years and sees no reason to stop now.

Paul W. Percival

Professor, Department of Chemistry.

B.A., 1st class Hons., and D.Phil., University of Oxford.

Postdoctoral research at Varian Associates, California, and University of Zürich, Switzerland.

Assistant Professor, Simon Fraser University, 1979, Associate Professor, 1982, Professor since 1987.

Member of Senate 1989-99 and 2000-present

Research

The chemistry of positive muons, muonium and muoniated free radicals, with an experimental program at TRIUMF. Funding from NSERC. Over 80 papers in scientific journals; co-editor of two books.

Previous Committee Experience

Senate: Academic Discipline, Discipline Appeals (Chair), Academic Planning, University Budget (Chair), Agenda and Rules, Graduate Studies, New Graduate Programs, Honorary Degrees, Library, Library Penalties, Nominating, Scholarships, Awards and Bursaries, Graduate Awards Adjudication, Electoral Standing.

University: Tenure, Salaries Appeals, Vice-President Academic Search (1999/2000), Dean of Science Search (1998-99), Dean of Graduate Studies Search (1991).

External Reviews: SFU Library (1991), SFU Physics Department (1998), UVic Chemistry Program (1999), Notre Dame Radiation Laboratory (1990), Experiment Evaluation Committees at TRIUMF and the Paul Scherrer Institute (Switzerland).

Department: Tenure, Appointments, Graduate Studies (Chair), Undergraduate Studies (Chair).

TRIUMF: Operating Committee, Senior Promotions, Long Range Planning, Safety Advisory, Experiments Evaluation (ex-officio Secretary), Beam Time Coordinator.

Other: Board of Governors, Science World British Columbia (1990-92), B.C. Ministry of Education Curriculum Overview Team for Science.

Statement

I strongly believe in the participatory democracy model of University governance. The University Act clearly gives Senate the authority and responsibility to determine academic policy. Senate and its committees provide the opportunity for faculty and other members of the university community to advise and monitor the activities of administrators, whose role it is to implement academic policies. I have both the experience and commitment to take an active part in this process.

Joseph G. Peters

Professor, School of Computing Science

During my 19 years at SFU, I have served on many committees at all levels. I am currently a member of Senate, SCUP, and the Senate Committee to Review and Develop Undergraduate Curricula, and I am chair of SCODA. I recently chaired the Committee to Review the Student Conduct Policies, and served on SCIA, SCAP, and SCUB.

I am keenly interested in the future of our university and in the open and democratic development of policies that will allow us to excel. I believe that effective communication is essential to achieving this goal and I have worked hard to establish contacts in many departments across the university. I feel that my experience has given me a broad view of the university and its workings. I would like to continue contributing to the governance of the university by renewing my membership on SCUP.

My main research interest is mathematical modelling of communication networks. I have published approximately 30 refereed articles and supervised 11 M.Sc. and Ph.D. recipients. I have been on the organizing committees for several conferences and workshops.

Randy Peg Peters

PhD candidate

Humanities Department, SFU

I am letting my name stand for the Senate Appeals Board. Last year I served as a member of the SCODA (Senate Cttee on Disciplinary Appeals). I am currently a graduate student in the Humanities department. I have finished all my course work and have begun writing my dissertation which is on the Platonic philosophy of George Grant. As a Special Arrangements student I have proved myself to be self-motivated and hard-working. I have also taught as a sessional instructor at SFU for the past two years and know how important it is that the students are treated fairly. As I have the time this year to commit to something like this, I believe I could be a real asset to the board.

I am married and have four daughters - all under the age of 6! I love it! I enjoyed training for triathalons and sailing with my family in the summers. I volunteer with my wife in our local parish helping do pre-marital counseling.

If you have any further questions please contact me. Thank you for the opportunity to serve my community in this way.

Reza Pourvali

Dear Senate members,

My name is Reza Pourvali and I am a Molecular Biology & Biochemistry (MBB) major with a cGPA of 4.17. My goal at SFU is to achieve academic excellence through quality education, and meanwhile give back to university and community by unique volunteer service and leadership. I was the recipient of a Gordon M Shrum entrance scholarship in 2000, and have been on SFU's Honour Roll since last fall. I am also a member of Golden Key International Honour Society and have received the society's medal and scholarship. Currently I am a Research Assistant in Dr. Baillie,s renowned Genomic Lab at SFU, and my funding comes from an NSERC Undergraduate Research Award. Service to university and community is of extreme importance and value to me. I am the Vice-President of MBB Student Union where I am responsible for running the executive and helping with all events. In addition, I am the Student Representative in MBB Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. I work very hard to reflect the concerns and feedback of approximately 200-300 students that I represent. Through my involvement with MBBSU and DUCC, I have developed invaluable leadership and teamwork skills, and a deep desire to help make SFU the best university in every aspect. Moreover, I have developed effective communication and public speaking skills through my involvement with MBBSU, DUCC, and Faculty of Science student recruitment. In addition to acting as a tour guide and mentor, I have given a number of presentations to large groups of students at SFU and high schools across lower mainland. My service definitely extends beyond SFU: I am a volunteer at Fellburn Care Centre where I assist the elderly in many ways. I received Fellburn,s Certificate of Appreciation for outstanding volunteering in 2001. I am also a volunteer in the Emergency Department of Burnaby Hospital where I assist patients and family members at a time of stress and need. I am honoured to be the winner of 2002 SFU Alumni Association Outstanding Student Leadership Award.

My goal in life is to make a difference in the world by leadership and education. My goal is to make my university, my community, and my world a yet better place. I have spent every moment of my service to SFU with a deep satisfaction and a strong belief in what I was doing. For me, nothing is more pleasing, more impressive and more rewarding than to see that my work is benefiting my university. I strongly believe that SFU,s Senate and various Senate Committees are a very important part of our dynamic university. Much of SFU,s reputation and success is due to the hard work of people like you. I am very interested to serve on the aforementioned senate committees, and am excited about serving my university in a new way. I believe in teamwork, respect for ideas of others, and a positive and enthusiastic attitude. I believe in SFU and its people. If elected, I will do my best to serve my university in the best possible way: a desire which is very close to my heart.

Jennifer Siegfried

Jennifer Siegfried is a third-year undergraduate student in the Faculty of Arts, Department of English. She has been a student at SFU since January of 1999 after transferring from UVic, and she has been studying the Arts and Sciences with great interest. It was only recently that she decided to pursue a Major in English, possibly with a view to doing an MA in the future. Jennifer has also nearly finished a Certificate in Liberal Arts. Currently, she also works full-time at the University/Industry Liaison office in Strand Hall.

Jennifer's interest in the Diverse Qualifications Committee mirrors her academic interests: she feels that instructors at SFU should have a demonstrated dedication to an interdisciplinary approach to teaching pursuant to SFU's mandate for a broad-based education. Her diverse academic background is testament to SFU's success thus far; Jennifer would like to see that this continues to be possible for other students.

Jennifer's interest in the Senate Library Committee and Library Penalties Appeal committee stems from her academic interests. As an English student, Jennifer is naturally interested in the library, and wants to learn more about its workings beyond her immediate experience with it. Sitting on this Committee should provide a good opportunity for her to gain additional knowledge related to her field, while simultaneously allowing her further involvement with another facet of the University.

Felix Tang

I treasure the education that I have received from SFU in the past five year and I would like to contribute my time, effort, and time back to the university by participating in the governing of the university. For experience, I am currently the elected President of the Student Marketing Association. I have also served in the Senate Graduate Studies Committee (SGSC) and Committee to Review University Admissions (CRUA) before.

Mark N. Wexler

I have been asked to let my name stand for the Senate Appeals Board. My name is Mark N. Wexler. I have been Professor of Applied Ethics in the Faculty of Business Administration at Simon Fraser university since 1977, active in university affairs, a four- time teaching award winner, on the editorial boards of several journals in the field of applied ethics, an active researcher and the authour of "Confronting Moral Worlds" and a forthcoming book entitled " The Four Faces of Capitalism". I look forward to dedicating some of my time and energy to the work of the Senate Appeals Board.
