

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

S.81-167

MEMORANDUM

To Senate

From Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies

Subject Changes - Management and Systems Science

Date November 20, 1981

Action undertaken by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies gives rise to the following motion:

MOTION: "That Senate approve and recommend approval to the Board of Governors, as set forth in S.81- 167 the proposed changes in Management and Systems Science."

At discussion it was indicated that the changes are of a housekeeping nature arising from curricular changes approved earlier in other areas.

Some further proposed changes have been deleted from this submission as the topics are still under discussion at SCUS or other bodies. They will be brought forward as required when completed.

MEMORANDUM

To..... Dr. Gordon Bhakthan Chairman, Faculty of Interdisciplinary Studies Undergraduate Curriculum Committee Subject..... MSSC curriculum changes	From..... Brian Alspach Coordinator, Management and Systems Science Date..... November 3, 1981

The following Management and Systems Science curriculum changes are required because of curriculum changes made by the Departments of Economics and Business Administration. These changes should be incorporated into the 1982/83 edition of the University Calendar.

I. Lower Division requirements: (see page 420 of current calendar)

A. Business Administration

-delete BUS. 103-3 Business in Society. This course has been changed to BUS. 303 and cannot, therefore, be considered a lower division requirement.

-add:

Any 100 division ECON course.

B. Economics

-Calendar currently lists:

--Any 100 division ECON course, or BUS. 103-3.

-delete BUS. 103-3 for same reason as stated in I. A.

II. Upper Division Requirements

A. BUS. 371-3 Organizational Theory, and BUS. 373-5 Operations Management have been dropped from the curriculum and been replaced with the following:

BUS. 372-3 - Micro Perspectives on Organizations

This course will examine models and concepts which are used to understand individuals and small groups in organizational settings. It explores issues of motivation, group and intergroup dynamics, leadership, communication, decision making, organizational climate, and organizational effectiveness.

(Lecture/Tutorial)

BUS. 270-3 (formerly COMM 370-3) or permission of the Department; 60 credit hours.

Students with credit for BUS. 371-3 (formerly COMM 371-3) may take one only of either BUS. 372 or BUS. 374 for additional credit.

BUS. 374-3 - Macro Perspectives on Organizations

This course will examine theories of organization which use the organization as a basic unit of analysis. It will show the structure and internal processes of an organization are linked to and partially determined by forces in the external environment of the organization. Contextual factors such as the technology and corporate strategy of the organization will also be examined. (Lecture/Tutorial)

Prerequisites: BUS. 270-3 (formerly COMM 370-3) or permission of the Department; 60 credit hours.

Students with credit for BUS. 371-3 (formerly COMM 371-3) may take one only of either BUS. 372 or BUS 374 for additional credit.

Therefore, BUS. 372-3 and 374-3 should replace BUS. 371-3 and 373-5.
