Department of History	•

Action taken by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies at its meeting of April 12, 1977 gives rise to the following motion:

MOTION

That Senate approve, and recommend approval to the Board of Governors, the following changes in course numbering in the Department of History: HIST 125-3, Britain from the Stuarts to the 20th Century, to HIST 103-3; HIST 199-3, Studies in Historical Method, to HIST 110-3; HIST 217-3, Canada to Confederation, to HIST 101-3; HIST 218-3, Canada Since Confederation, to HIST 102-3.

NOTE - Numbers of the two Canadian History courses are being changed in order to encourage students to study Canadian History during their first year at the University. The Introductory History of Britain course and the Historical Method course are being renumbered to indicate to students that they may take these courses in their initial semester.

CALENDAR SUBMISSION

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 125-3 Britain from the Stuarts to the 20th Century."

to: "HIST 103-3 Britain from the Stuarts to the 20th Century."

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 199-3 Studies in Historical Method."

to: "HIST 110-3 Studies in Historical Method."

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 217-3 Canada to Confederation" to: "HIST 101-3 Canada to Confederation."

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 218-3 Canada Since Confederation."

to: "HIST 102-3 Canada Since Confederation."

Because of these changes, Lower Division History courses will be listed in the following sequences:

HIST 101

HIST 102

HIST 103

HIST 110

HIST 146

HIST 151 HIST 190

Rationale:

The Department wishes to make Canadian History available to students at the 100 level and to encourage them to take it as an introduction to the discipline of history before they began to specialize in other fields of history. The numbers 101 and 102 have been chosen to indicate this intention.

The Introductory History of Britain has been renumbered to indicate to students that this is a course that they could tackle in their initial semester.

The experience of the department has been that the number 199 frightened students away from the deaprtment's introductory course in history method. Students assumed it to be close to a 200 level course in degree of difficulty and therefore avoided enrolling in it early in their careers and found it too
