MEMORANDUM

To SENATE

From SENATE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

Subject REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

Date AUGUST 1, 1975

The Senate Committee on Committees, elected at the June 2, 1974 meeting of Senate, advertised broadly requesting submissions from the University community with respect to the charges the Committee was to consider. It received submissions from a number of individuals and groups. In addition, discussions were held by individuals from the Committee with Chairmen and/or members of various Senate Committees. All of this information was considered extensively by the Committee on Committees, which has held six meetings.

The Committee now wishes to make a number of recommendations to Senate.

GENERAL COMMENTS

1. The attached materials provide information for each Committee, showing the Committee as it currently exists and identifying updating information which reflects the recommendations now being made by the Senate Committee on Committees.
2. Unless there is objection by Senate, it is proposed to add for each of the Committees the letter abbreviation to identify the Committee. Such letters have applied to some Committees previously but not to others, e.g. SCUS, SUAB, SAB.
3. In a number of instances - primarily to gain parallelism - some changes of wording have been incorporated. As these are primarily editorial they have not been identified as changes.
4. Where the change is more than editorial it is identified in the general explanation for the Committee or/and is shown in italics.
5. In the cases of a number of Committees there are notes and comments at the end which identify changes that have been made to the Committees up to the present time, not including changes now being recommended. It is intended that these comments will be appropriately changed following the actions of Senate in respect of these Committees.
