RE Changes to requirements for SCA students

DATE May 26, 2009

On behalf of the Faculty of Communication, Art and Technology, I am forwarding to you for information the changes with respect to requirements for Contemporary Arts students resulting from the transition from FASS to FCAT of April 1, 2009.

As noted, in the attached e-mail from the Acting Undergraduate Chair of Contemporary Arts, the changes are as follows:

- 1) For those SCA students who entered prior to Fall 2006 who have yet to graduate, the old FASS breadth requirements no longer apply and these students continue to be exempt from the SFU WQB requirements.
- 2) For those SCA students who entered from Fall 2006 forward, their requirements are now simply harmonized with the University degree requirements for W, Q and B [see page 7 and 8 University Calendar]. As a result the additional FASS breadth requirements no longer apply to these SCA students.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
