CHANGE OF DESCRIPTION. From:

Introductory Statement.

The Political Science department has organized its curriculum on the basis of five fields within the discipline. The centre digit of each Political Science course number (e.g. in the course numbered 342, 4 is the centre digit) determines the field in which the course is offered.

Centre Digit	Group	Field
1	A	Political Theory (POL. 111, 211, 212, 311, 312, 313, 314, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 418, 419)
2	B	Canadian Government and Politics (POL. 121, 221, 222, 321, 322, 323, 324, 421, 422, 423, 428, 429)
3	C	Comparative Government and Politics (POL. 131, 231, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439)
4	D	International Relations (POL. 141, 241, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 448, 449)
5	E	Urban Politics and Public Administration (POL. 151, 152, 251, 351, 356, 357, 451, 452, 458, 459)

TO:

The Political Science department has organized its curriculum on the basis of five fields within the discipline.

Group	Field
A	Political Theory (POL. 111, 211, 212, 311, 312, 313, 314, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 418, 419)
B	Canadian Government and Politics (POL. 121, 221, 222, 321, 322, 323, 324, 421, 422, 423, 428, 429)
C	Comparative Government and Politics (POL. 131, 231, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 381, 382 , 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439)
D	International Relations (POL. 141, 241, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 448, 449)
E	Urban Politics and Public Administration (POL. 151, 152, 251, 351, 356, 357, 451, 452, 458, 459)

RATIONALE:

In order to provide greater flexibility in the addition of new courses and further revision of the undergraduate curriculum, the Department of Political Science has decided to abandon the use of the middle digit in each course number as a code device to specify in which subfield of the discipline the course belongs.

(i) p.177 POL.452-3 Government and Economic Order

(Change from:) An analysis of the regulation of economic activity by the state in selected political systems.

(to:) This course will concern itself with rationales and critiques of government intrusions into the market place in selected countries.

Students who enrol in this course should have some background in economics; it is highly recommended that they have taken ECON.100-3.

RATIONALE:

The new description better reflects the content of the course. The addition of a prerequisite better reflects the background necessary to understand the course.
