

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT

Simon Fraser University will be offering the following course in Kamloops during the 1984 Fall Semester (September - December):

EDUCATION 361-4 CONTEMPORARY ISSUES AND NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN EDUCATIONAL PRACTICE

Description:

This course will be jointly planned with the Kamloops School District to deal with the concerns of classroom teachers in the elementary schools of today. The course will address a variety of topical issues including Special Education for the classroom teacher. Presenters will include Simon Fraser University resource persons and exemplary educators from within the Kamloops School District.

Note: For those interested, a follow-up course in the Spring 1985 semester will allow students to implement concepts from Education 361 in their own classrooms or schools.

Instructor: [REDACTED] Cheryl Hearn

Detailed information about course scheduling, required reading, etc. will be available at the SFU Site Office after August 21, 1984.
