SPECIAL TOPIC:

COLLABORATIVE CONSULTATION - TEACHER SUPPORT TEAMS

(T1.00)

Summer Session, 1992
(July 13 - July 22)
Monday - Sunday, 8:30 - 12:20 p.m.
Location: University of Victoria
Victoria, B.C.

Instructor: Dr. Jim Chalfant &
Dr. Margaret Pysh

PREREQUISITE: EDUC 401/402 or equivalent.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The communication and collaboration skills taught in this course have been organized into five content units. A variety of formats will be used to expand students' knowledge base through reading, discussion, and writing; and provide practice in applying affective collaboration procedures. These experiences will be the content areas for discussion as well as for the problem-solving collaborative skills practiced by the class sub-groups during the application activities. The instructors will serve in both a lecture capacity and in a group facilitation capacity for guiding the students' reading, writing, skill application, and discussion about collaboration and consultation procedures.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- A. Attendance at all class sessions is expected.
- B. Students are expected to actively participate in all discussions and activities.
- C. Readings as assigned and/or needed for Unit Application Projects.
- D. Unit Application Projects.

GRADES

A five-point Likert scale will be used to grade the organization, clarity, accuracy and references on each of the five papers.
