

EDUCATION 406-5 (Group 06)

INSERVICE PRACTICUM:
SUPERVISION OF STUDENT TEACHERS
SPRING, 1986

Education 406 is a 5-credit professional inservice practicum available to teachers who

- a. have taken Education 490 or 496 (Developmental Supervision of Student Teachers); and
- b. will be supervising an SFU student teacher (Ed. 405) during the Spring 1986 semester.*

Participants who enrol in Ed. 406-5 (Group 06) will function as school associates for P.D.P. students, while receiving further training in developmental supervision. In order to receive course credit, they must successfully complete all of the following activities and assignments:

- i. Classroom work: focussed practice in all aspects of student teacher supervision, under the guidance of a trained faculty associate (30 hours);
- ii. Seminars: regular meetings of course participants, to discuss case studies, solve problems, and provide collegial support (10-20 hours);
- iii. Enrichment activities: scheduled activities related to the theory and practice of supervision, e.g., guest speakers, skills practice sessions, demonstrations, classroom exchange visits, peer observations (10-20 hours).

Specific assignments will address the following areas:

- i. phase-in activities and collaborative planning;
- ii. analysis of teaching;
- iii. modeling and coaching;
- iv. using a variety of observation methods;
- v. analyzing and interpreting observation data;
- vi. using audiovisual observation tools--audiotape, videotape, still photography;
- vii. clarifying student teacher beliefs and values;
- viii. improving one's own teaching.

Course Instructor: Pat Holborn

First Seminar: Tuesday, January 7, 5:30 p.m., MPX 8620

Schedule of other seminars to be determined

* Please note that admission to this course may be restricted by the availability of faculty associate supervisors and P.D.P. student teachers. Early registration is encouraged. Please ensure that you designate Ed. 406 and Group 06 on your registration form. See the attached information regarding university registration procedures and deadlines.

If you are interested in Ed. 406 (Group 06), you should also complete the attached form indicating your intent to sponsor a student teacher. This will enable the P.D.P. Field Coordinators to identify a student who might be appropriate for your classroom. Please return the intent form as soon as possible to:
