

EDUCATION 446-4 LAW FOR THE CLASSROOM TEACHER

This course provides a comprehensive introduction to Canadian law and legal institutions. The course is designed to prepare B.C. teachers to teach Law 12, the law component of the social studies curriculum and the consumer and business education courses. Elementary teachers and university students also may find the course useful in preparing them to understand the Canadian legal system. The course includes an overview of the history and sources of Canadian law, an examination of its legal institutions and their processes as well as an introduction to the main areas of substantive law including criminal, family, tort, contract, commercial and property law. Course assignments encourage students to investigate legal institutions and services and to research legal concerns in their own communities and to become involved in a legal education resource network. Students will be introduced to some of the legal resource materials available for classroom use and will have the option of communicating with each other in teleconference sessions.

PREREQUISITE: 60 credit hours.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Case, Roland et al, Understanding Charter Decisions: A Guide to Judicial Reasoning and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 1989.

British Columbia Ministry of Education, Law 12 Graduation Program Curriculum Guide, 1991.

Yates, R. & Yates, R. Canada's Legal Environment, 1993.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Students must complete seven assignments, which involve five biweekly written responses to unit readings and audio lectures, one community activity report, and a 10 - 15 page legal research report.

SUPPLEMENTARY FEES:

Course Materials & Service Fee	$30
Deposit for Additional Materials	$20
