

EDUC 230-3 OUTLINE

PHILOSOPHICAL ISSUES IN EDUCATION

1984-2

The central concern of this course is two-fold. First, it is intended to provide students who have a general interest in educational studies with an opportunity to examine critically a variety of philosophical issues in contemporary education. Secondly, it aims to provide students with an understanding of the philosophical method of enquiry. On completion of this course the student should have acquired, to some degree, the skill of identifying and tackling philosophical questions in education.
