

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

Education 441-4

MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION

Summer Session, 1991
(July 2 - August 9)
Tuesday & Thursday, 5:30 - 9:20 p.m.
Location: MPX 7600

Instructor: J. MacDougall
Telephone: 926-2249

PREREQUISITE: 60 hours of credit.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- 1) discuss sociological and psychological factors associated with immigration, multiculturalism and second language acquisition.
- 2) have a better understanding of the cultural background of major ethnocultural groups in Vancouver.
- 3) relate theoretical considerations to specific practical implications for our schools.

COURSE EVALUATION

The course grade (100) will be divided accordingly:

- | | |
|--|----|
| 1) In-class work/homework | 50 |
| 2) Midterm exam | 25 |
| 3) Final project
(synthesis paper or in-school project) | 25 |

READINGS

There is no required text for the course. All readings provided are required. Although we may not have enough time to discuss all the readings in class, the concepts in them will supplement what we will be discussing and are necessary for total understanding of the course.

COURSE FORMAT

The format of the course will change as the course progresses — from intercultural awareness exercises to lectures to guest speakers. In all cases, student participation in discussion is strongly encouraged.