COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is intended for senior students or practicing teachers who wish to explore the contributions counselling skills provide. The course is designed to develop some counselling skills that can be applied within the classroom setting. A combination of lectures, discussions, practice exercises and seminars will be used to explore such topics as: the role of the counsellor in the school, different models of counselling, effective helping skills, the use of group discussion to promote affective development, and the use of assessment techniques in the classroom.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Change project and paper 30 marks. (Identification of a desirable change in one's own life and a diary of application of some of the counselling skills learned in class to this issue). Quality of writing 3 marks.
2. Research task and class presentation 30 marks. Research a counselling theory and include how this theory might be applied to a classroom situation. Quality of writing 4 marks.
3. A report on how you have handled or might handle a specific issue in the classroom. (Include theoretical orientation and skills/techniques you have employed or would employ.) 30 marks. Quality of writing 3 marks.
