

EDUCATION 326-3 (D02.00)

Classroom Management & Discipline

Interession 2001 (May / June)

Instructor : Steve Dunsmuir

(dunsmuir@sfu.ca)

B: 784-7543 H: 782-1357

Location: Dawson Creek

Major Learning Outcomes

The course participants will;

- * explore the essential elements of effective classroom management.
- * identify and develop their own beliefs regarding classroom management.
- * investigate the principles, practices and considerations of various models of classroom management.
- * develop an understanding of what it takes to create a successful learning community.
- * actively participate in the purposeful development of their own classroom community.
- * outline and adapt specific strategies for the successful management of an effective learning community.

COURSE OUTLINE

Week 1:	“Life in a Crowded Place”	May 7
Week 2:	“Classroom Culture”	May 14
Week 3:	“Modifying Behaviors”	May 21*
Week 4:	“Managing To Teach”	May 28
Week 5:	“The Cooperative Classroom”	June 4
Week 6:	“Community Management Plans”	June 11

(* Victoria Day : class may be rescheduled during that week)

CLASSES: Each Monday, beginning May. 7, 6 hours per day
Proposed schedule: 9 am-3:30 with half hour for lunch

REQUIRED TEXT

“Models of Classroom Management : Principles, Practices & Critical Considerations”
by Martin, Sugarman & McNamara