PREREQUISITE: A teacher's certificate

Focus on Inquiry Process and Curriculum Implementation.
EDUC 383-3 is the credit portion of the Ministry of Education sponsored provincial Social Studies in-service program. Teachers enrolled in the credit portion are expected to attend the conference as delegates and to complete academic assignments.

The focus of the conference is inquiry learning in Social Studies and the implementation of the new curriculum.

PARTICIPANTS

This course is open to both elementary and secondary social studies teachers. A portion of the institute will focus on the specific needs of primary, intermediate and secondary teachers.

COURSE CONTENT

The course content will be the same as the institute program. The agenda will include: plenary sessions (inquiry processes, evaluation, implementation); workshops geared to specific grade levels (e.g. research/report writing, integration through inquiry, communication and critical thinking); small seminar discussion groups; publishers' displays; informal interaction. Credit registrants will also be expected to participate in an additional one hour session each day (4:00 - 5:00 p.m.) (On Monday, Aug. 24 this session runs 4:30 - 6:00 p.m.)

ASSIGNMENTS

Teachers enrolled in Educ. 383-3 must complete readings and design an implementation plan for their school/district. This major assignment must be submitted NO LATER THAN September 3, 1987. Information on the assignment will be mailed with the pre-reading package in mid-July.
