

EDUCATION 361-3

CONTEMPORARY ISSUES & NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN EDUCATIONAL PRACTICE
(S.I.T.E. Secondary School Education)

Regular Semester , 1987
May 4 - June 26
Tuesday & Thursday: 1:00-2:30
June 29 - July 31
Tuesday & Thursday: 1:00-3:00
(Lecture series from June 29-July 31 is included as a component of this course)

Instructors: Marian Dodds
Judy Morrison

Location: To be advised

---

PREREQUISITE

60 hours of credit

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

Examines new developments and current issues in teaching and educational practice.

COURSE OUTLINE:

This course will survey a number of issues and new developments in secondary education including: Social Issues (race, class, gender); Confronting Cultural Taboos (sex, religion, politics); and Teacher Decision-Making (curriculum, evaluation, methods). Site lectures will be discussed in seminars. Issues and developments will be discussed within the context of the secondary classroom.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Two critiques, two oral presentations, and a short position paper will be required.

TEXTS:

Spender, Dale. Invisible Women: The Schooling Scandal. Norton.

Smith, Frank. Insult to Intelligence. Arbor House.

Supplementary readings will be on reserve in the library.