COURSE DESCRIPTION

An overview of theory, research and practice concerning social emotional development and social interactions and relationships in the school context. Emphasis on the role of peer relationships in development and the role of the school in supporting positive interactions.

Proposed Schedule of Topics:

- Week 1 Overview and Assignments
- Week 2 Observing Social Interactions
- Week 3 The Hidden Curriculum
- Week 4 Roles and Values
- Week 5 Popularity and peer Group Entry
- Week 6 Play Patterns
- Week 7 Play Environments
- Week 8 Popular Culture
- Week 9 Family Culture
- Week 10 School/Community Culture
- Week 11 Boundaries, Barriers and Access
- Week 12 Mediating Social Interactions
- Week 13 Wrap-up

Course Objectives:

- 1) To deepen our theoretic understandings of the significance of children's social relationships in school culture
- 2) To construct a deeper understanding of environmental influences on the social lives of children
- 3) To critically analyze the significance of socially mediated learning

Required Readings:

A Custom Courseware will be sold to students through the SFU bookstore

Evaluation:

Four evaluation items will be used to assess student understandings of the course content. These items are as follows:

Class attendance and participation:

15% of your grade will be based on class attendance and participation. This will be calculated on your preparation for class discussions, participation in activities, presentations and discussions as well as your attendance

Final Exam:

A mid term exam will be scheduled in week 13 worth 25%. Questions will be drawn from readings and class notes

Observations of play environments:

Observations of children in early childhood settings will be due in week 5. This will be worth 25% of your grade.

Observation Report:

An observation report will due in week 11 based on observations previously submitted in week 5. The observation report will be worth 35% of your grade.

EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENTS

- 1) To be awarded a grade in the course all assignments must be handed in, in person during class on or before the due date indicated in the course outline. Students are responsible for making back-up copies of each of the assignments submitted
- 2) Requests for extensions without penalty may be granted in cases of extreme circumstances if the situation is discussed with the instructor prior to the due date. In all other cases late assignments will be penalized by 10% per week or any portion thereof
- 3) Given the emphasis on classroom participation and discussion, regular attendance is mandatory
- 4) Due to issues of confidentiality all assignments must be picked up in person and grades will not be reported over the telephone
