

SPRING SEMESTER 2006 COURSE OUTLINE

EDUC 448-4 (EDUCATION)

LAW IN THE CURRICULUM

C100

This course addresses the importance of law-related education in the K-12 curriculum, how legal concepts and skills can be incorporated into various subject areas, and how different teaching strategies can engage students with the law. The focus is on the methodology of teaching law in the schools. EDUC 448 introduces students to the case study, mock trial, negotiation, mediation, justice circle, story drama, and other strategies for teaching law to children. It also provides opportunities to examine curriculum materials and resources, plan lessons, and develop curriculum for the classroom.
