

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY
FALL SEMESTER 2006

EDUC 100-3
SELECTED QUESTIONS & ISSUES IN EDUCATION
(D01.00)

Sandy Hill

email: shill@sfu.ca

Phone: 604-291-4432

Office hours: Wednesdays: 12:00-1:30 (by appointment)

Wednesday & Friday 9:30-11:20
AQ 5020

---

PREREQUISITE: None.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This introductory course is for those who are curious about learning and learners. The course offers a range of learning experiences and strategies.

Topics will include:

What is learning? What is worth learning? How can learning be structured?

Who am I in the midst of learning? How and why do I learn?

How are schooling and learning related? Whose purposes are served?

Alternate models of learning.

ORGANIZATION:

Wednesday and Friday classes

School visits

REQUIREMENTS:

Regular attendance, preparation and participation - 25%

Informal and formal written responses – 40%

Class presentations – 15%

In-class final exam - 20%

REQUIRED READINGS:

Selected articles distributed by the instructor and peers

Return to Education's Undergraduate 2006-3 Course Outlines Main Page.

---