RANGE OF TOPICS:

The emphasis will be on the preschool and beginning school child with specific reference to the content areas indicated by the texts above:

1. the emergence of thinking skills
2. language growth and experience
3. activities in the creative arts

Materials selection and alternate programs will be stressed.

RECOMMENDED READING:

Purchase of all three texts is desirable. In addition, an extensive bibliography in each area is available with selected titles on overnight reserve at the Library.

REQUIREMENTS:

The major assignment will be to plan in detail, in one content area, a portion of an instructional program for the coming year, using the tools of instructional design and analysis to be introduced in the course. Short overnight assignments will be given by each instructor as student needs arise.
