

EDUCATION 480-4

DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

FALL, 1985

INSTRUCTOR: Andre Obadia

THURSDAYS, 4:30 - 8:20

LOCATION: MPX 9511

This course is offered in French and it is intended for teachers of French as a second language at the Elementary and Secondary levels.

This course deals with a variety of approaches including the communicative approach and suggestology.

The students will also learn to use error analysis techniques and to adapt their teaching techniques to the specific needs of learners.

The general nature of the course will focus on practical applications of various approaches using as support documents Vive le francais, Passeport francais, Le Francais international, Bonjour Canada.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

Elementary and Secondary teachers of French as a second language. The course can be used for both degree completion and towards an Extended Studies Diploma Program.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Rivers, Wilga M., A Practical Guide to the Teaching of French.
New York, Oxford University Press, (current edition)