

SPECIAL TOPICS: Introduction to the Theory and Practice of Educational Administration

Spring, 1986

Dr. Peter Coleman
Office 8662
291-3622 or 531-6209

Location: Penticton, B.C.

CANCELLED

The primary objective of this course is to provide an overview of current theory and practice in the administration of education in B.C. Although the primary focus will be on school-level administration, some attention will be paid to district and provincial levels. The following chart shows topics to be covered.

FOCUS	LEVEL
	I SCHOOL	II SCHOOL DISTRICT	III PROVINCE
A.As WORKPLACE	1. climate 2. decision-making 3. collegiality	1. teacher associations	1. policies 2. professionals
B.As COMMUNITY SERVICE	1. parents & teachers 2. accountability	1. interest groups 2. representation 3. finance	1. goals 2. equality of opportunity
C.As INSTRUCTIONAL SETTING	1. effectiveness 2. styles	1. school autonomy 2. effectiveness	1. programs 2. student achievement
D.As INSTITUTION	1. leadership 2. policies	1. leadership 2. policies	1. inter-govern. relations

The requirements for students taking the course for credit include a term paper (5-8 pages; 2,000 words approx., worth about 40%), several in-class quizzes on reading material, about 30%, and presentations to the class, worth about 30% of the final grade.

The course will be of particular interest to students with several years of teaching experience in schools, and to practicing/prospective administrators; it is also a useful preparatory course for graduate work in educational administration.

TEXT: Martin, W. and Macdonell, A. Canadian Education: A Sociological Analysis Prentice-Hall of Canada: Scarborough, Ontario, 1982.

IMPORTANT: Please note that a maximum of 12 semester hours of credit in Education Special Topics courses may be used toward a Bachelor of Education Degree.