

EDUCATION 487-4
PRACTICES AND PRINCIPLES RELATED TO CLASSROOM
MANAGEMENT AND DISCIPLINE

Intersession 1977

---

Instructors: Dr. Darrell Anderson
Dr. T. Kazepides

An examination of some of the aspects of classroom management and discipline will be considered. These range from theoretical and philosophical issues to some practical procedures which can be applied to the classroom situation. In addition, the legal precepts of school discipline established by the Public Schools Act, are examined.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Attendance at and participation in twelve lecture/seminar sessions.
2. The writing of two (2) papers (2-5 pages) which will account for 40% of the grade.
3. The writing of a final examination based on Required Readings and xeroxed materials distributed in the sessions (60% of the final grade.)

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Dreikers, R. et. al. Maintaining Sanity in the Classroom (Secondary Students).

Dreikers, R. Discipline Without Tears (Elementary Students).

Kounin, J.S. Discipline and Group Management in Classrooms (Both Levels).

DA/rm

