

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY
EDUCATION 477-4
DESIGNS FOR LEARNING: ART
(E1.00)
(Cat. #36501)

Fall Semester, 1993
(September 7 - December 6)
Tuesdays, 16:00-19:50
Location: Room 16

Instructor S. Gorris
Office: Milner Educ. Centre
Phone: 530-2711

Langley Fine Arts School, 9096 Trattle St., Fort Langley, B.C.

PREREQUISITE: EDUC 401/402

DESCRIPTION

This course will introduce students to the foundations of art education that will prepare them in teaching art to Primary, Intermediate and Graduation levels (K-12).

OBJECTIVES

1. Students will participate in a minimum of six studio processes and will complete individual works based on this experience.
2. Students will be introduced to the origins and purpose of art education.
3. Students will demonstrate an understanding of curriculum planning by developing an individual curriculum proposal.
4. To introduce students to historical and analytical applications of study within an art curriculum.

COURSE CONTENT

Included will be practical applications of drawing/sculpturing/painting and ceramics, stages of creative, development, design as a visual foundation, computer technology, discipline-based art education, B.C. curriculum, developing a curriculum, sound teaching practices, establishing a creative climate, displaying child art, special needs students in art (including the gifted), group individual classroom study, art supplies and their use and current philosophies in art education.

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Art projects.....35%
2. Curriculum plan.....30%
3. Special projects.....35%