

Education 467-4 Curriculum and Instruction in

Teaching English as a Second Language

FALL SEMESTER, 1983

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. K. Toohy

Tuesdays, 4:30 - 8:30

LOCATION: on campus

This course is intended to provide practising or pre-service teachers with an overview of linguistic, cultural and pedagogical concerns in teaching English as a second language. Participants will discuss the disciplinary bases of contemporary approaches to second language teaching, will survey and evaluate curricular methods and materials, and finally, will develop materials which might be useful in their own actual or projected teaching situations.

- TOPICS:
1. history of language teaching approaches
 2. communicative competence and communicative teaching
 3. how to teach pronunciation
 4. review of English grammar
 5. psychological, political and economic considerations in T.E.S.L.
 6. reading and listening
 7. writing and speaking
 8. bilingual education

- REQUIREMENTS:
1. Phonemic transcription quiz
 2. Syntax quiz
 3. Textbook evaluation
 4. Unit plan for teaching E.S.L.
 5. Presentation of lesson from unit plan
 6. On-going participation in workshop activities: mini-assignments, mini-presentations.

PRE-REQUISITE: A lower level Linguistics course.