COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Description

This course will focus on exploring the principles and components of a "Balanced Literacy Program." Emphasis will be placed on developing knowledge, skills and strategies to create real and meaningful reading experiences in the classroom. We will explore the nature of the reading process and discuss structures and strategies that promote literacy acquisition throughout the grades. Current theories supporting the teaching of reading/writing will be examined and related to classroom practice. The interactive design of this course will enable you to examine and reflect on your understanding about learning, the teaching of reading and your role as teacher. The following topics will be addressed:

- Reading Across the Life Span: Developmental Perspectives
- Early Literacy Instruction
- The Reading Process: Decoding to comprehension
- Novel Study: Literature Circles, Response Journals
- Picture Books, Basal Readers & Young Adult Novels
- Engagement in Literature through the Arts
- Reading and Writing Connections
- Reading for Information / Reading in the Content Areas
