

MEMORANDUM

ATTENTION	Senate	DATE	November 20, 2020
FROM	Stephen Spector Chair, Senate Calendar Committee
RE:	Revision to Academic Dates 2020/2021

At its meeting of November 20, 2020, the Calendar Committee reviewed the attached request for revision of the previously approved schedule for spring 2021 and summer 2021.

The Calendar Committee approves and recommends to Senate the following:

Motion 1:

“That Senate approve that the first day of classes for the Spring 2021 term be revised from Tuesday, January 5 to Monday, January 11 and that the first day of classes for the Summer 2021 term be revised from Monday, May 10 to Monday, May 17.”

Motion 2:

“That Senate approve the revised Spring 2021 calendar.”

Motion 3:

“That Senate approve that the number of teaching days in Summer 2021 term be reduced from 63 days to 61 days.”

Motion 4:

“That Senate approve the revised Summer 2021 calendar.”

By delaying the first day of classes for Summer 2021, this again allows instructors adequate time to prepare for Summer term instruction. To accommodate the later start date of May 17 and provide an adequate break and preparation time for the Fall 2021 term, we also recommend reducing the number of teaching days during the Summer term from 63 to 61. This year, UBC has 61 teaching days in the first term of their winter session and will have 62 in the second term. UVIC has 59 teaching days in the first term of their winter session and will have 59 teaching days in the second term. It is, therefore, not uncommon for post-secondary institutions to vary teaching days throughout the year and have less than 63, as is the current standard at SFU.

Proposed Dates:
