MEMORANDUM

TO: Senate Committee on Agenda & Rules (SCAR)

FROM: Jack P. Blaney
President

RE: Revised "Values & Commitments" Document

DATE: February 15, 2000

The attached "Values and Commitments" document has been revised from an earlier version that was discussed at Senate on January 10, 2000. In light of that discussion, and following a series of open meetings, the document is now in a form that I wish to take to Senate for endorsement at the meeting scheduled for March 6, 2000.

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

VALUES AND COMMITMENTS

We are an open, inclusive university whose foundation is intellectual and academic freedom.

Our scholarship unites teaching and research: we relish discovery, diversity and dialogue.

Our students and communities can expect teaching that is personal and learning opportunities that are lifelong.

We champion the liberal arts and sciences and pioneering interdisciplinary and professional programs.

We are a university where risks can be taken and bold initiatives embraced.

UPON THESE FOUNDATIONS,
we will engage all our communities in building a robust and ethical society.
