Memo To: Senate Committee on Agenda and Rules From: Jack P. Blaney President

Re: Search Committees for Vice-Presidential Appointments

The Board of Governors, at its meeting held on May 27, 1999, approved, as set forth in S.99-41, the composition, terms of reference and search procedures for vice-presidential appointments with one amendment to the wording of the terms of reference.

Item 2(b)(viii) in the Terms of Reference under Search Committee Procedures now reads as follows:

(viii) establishing whether the names of the shortlisted candidates will be made public and whether there will be an open meeting for shortlisted candidates. If there is not an open meeting, the Chair of the Search Committee will provide an explanation.

This amendment will need to go to Senate for consideration and approval.
