Terms of Reference

1. To be responsible for the implementation of a system of academic planning based on S.80-98. Specifically, the Committee will undertake the following responsibilities:

- a) to provide periodic assessments of the present and probable future environments of the University, its students, and its community;
  - b) to identify priorities for the development of new academic programs and emerging research areas;
  - c) to gather information concerning initiatives in the development of programs at all levels in the University;
  - d) to ensure coordination of academic planning with the provision of facilities and services, with financial resources, and with planning for the total post-secondary education system in British Columbia.
2. To consider and make recommendations to Senate on all proposals involving new undergraduate and graduate programs and courses, or major modifications to existing programs and courses, according to the criteria specified in S.80-98, and to report to Senate for information and the Board for ratification, in a summary form, all proposed revisions to an existing course or program for which SCUS or SGSC, acting under delegated authority, has concluded all matters.
  3. To review existing programs according to the criteria set out in S.80-98 for the purpose of assessment and, in some cases, possible expansion, curtailment, or discontinuance.
  4. To receive and review recommendations for the establishment of centres and institutes under AC 35 and forward recommendations to Senate and the Board of Governors.
  5. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Senate Committee on Academic Planning may establish task forces or sub-committees to deal with particular tasks.

Delegation of Senate Authority to SCAP:

Senate approved on April 6, 1987 that SCUS become a subcommittee of SCAP (S.87-8), thereby having reporting responsibilities to SCAP rather than Senate, and that responsibilities previously delegated to SCUS by Senate be delegated to SCAP with the understanding that SCAP might further delegate appropriate responsibilities to SCUS.

At the meeting of SCAP on September 16, 1987, SCAP approved the delegation of those responsibilities to SCUS, with appropriate amendments to require that such items be reported to SCAP in a timely manner.

Notwithstanding this authority, SCAP retains the right to forward for consideration by Senate any matter which, in the judgement of the Committee or its Chair, requires such consideration.

Approved by Senate at its meeting of October 6, 1975 to replace the former Presidential Committee - Academic Planning Committee. Changes in membership and changes in terms of reference approved by Senate, December 1, 1980. Revision in membership approved by Senate, October 4, 1982 (S.82-99). Revision in membership to reflect University reorganization approved by Senate, May 13, 1985 (S.85-33). Senate approved that the delegation of Senate authority previously granted to SCUS, be transferred to SCAP with the understanding that SCAP may further delegate appropriate responsibilities to SCUS - April 6, 1987 (S.87-8). Responsibilities delegated to SCUS at the meeting of SCAP on September 16, 1987 (SCAP 87-4). Revision in membership approved by Senate October 1, 1990 (S.90-41). Revision in terms of reference approved by Senate July 6, 1992 (S.92-52)

Committee meetings normally are scheduled monthly on Wednesdays, two days after the scheduled meeting date of Senate, at 2:00 p.m., with adjournment not later than 5:00 p.m.

SCAP reports to Senate in May of each year.
