Faculty of Arts Curriculum Committee

Subject CURRICULUM CHANGES - POLITICAL SCIENCE

Date November 3, 1978

The Faculty of Arts Curriculum Committee at its meeting of November 2, 1978 approved the attached curriculum changes and new course proposal for the Department of Political Science. The new course proposal for POL 334-3 was sent to other Faculties for overlap consideration. They should have two weeks from the courses approval or until November 16, 1978 to respond.

Would you please place these changes on the agenda of the next SCUS meeting.

POL. 334-3 GOVERNMENT & POLITICS: SELECTED EASTERN EUROPEAN STATES

COURSE OUTLINE

Dr. Leonard J. Cohen
Spring, 1979

Course Focus

A comparative analysis of government and politics in Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Poland, Hungary, and Albania.

The course is structured to provide a comprehensive introduction to the ideology, political organization, and political dynamics of the East European socialist states and also an understanding of the various contemporary issues and problems which affect the development of those regimes (e.g. Soviet influence, ethnic conflict, economic reform, leadership change, generational conflict, cultural dissidence, human rights, etc.).

Readings: Course readings will be drawn primarily from the following authored and edited studies. Those studies marked with an asterisk should be purchased by the student. The remaining books will be on Library reserve.

Joseph Rothschild, East Central Europe between the Two World Wars (1974).

Hugh Seton-Watson, The East European Revolution (1956).

R.V. Burks, The Dynamic of Communism in Eastern Europe (1961).

Martin McCauley (ed.), Communist Power in Europe, 1944-1949 (1977).

* Francois Fejto, A History of the People's Democracies: Eastern Europe since Stalin (1973).

* David Lane, The Socialist Industrial State (1976).

* Miklos Haraszti, A Worker in a Worker's State, introduced by Heinrich Boll (1977).

Selected Reading on East European Politics, prepared by the instructor.
(mainly recent periodical literature).

Organization

One three hour seminar each week.

There will be a final examination and students will prepare a research essay.
